CRIPPPLED CHILDREN

With the extension of the current Crippled Children's Easter Seal drive until the end of next month it is anticipated that the vitally needed funds to carry out next year's aid to the county's handycapped youngsters will be forthcoming from local residents. This hope was expressed this week by Judge Edmund Scott, who has acted as Chairman for the present Easter Seal campaign. He was confident that citizens throughout the county would make a special effort to send in their contribution to the drive before the official closing date in May.

Scott said that only 63 per cent of the Crippled Children's Society's modest 1949 - 50 budget has been raised to date.

"This 63 per cent," Scott said, "Is not a sufficient amount to carry on the program of assistance to the county's many stricken children during the next 12 months."

Scott said that if every county resident who as yet has not contributed in some way to the crippled children's Easter seal drive would take a few moments to mail in their check or dollar to the campaign headquarters at 1208 Burlingame Avenue, Burlingame, this year's goal could be reached with ease. He stressed that the success of the drive hinges on the interest shown by county citizens within the next month.

THE restless school kids are counting the weeks, and so are the parents. for different reasons. With summer approaching and the children thrown on their own recourses for entertainment and activity, the great lesson of faith and patience confronts the mothers again. To keep their minds from getting stagnant on the subject of numbers, it has been suggested that the problem of getting to the top of the pyramid be given them to figure out. Didn't you know we had a Pyramid Club in town? It is a long climb to the pot of gold.

There is one thing you will acquire with a climb upward, and that is a blushing case of poison oak from our hills. The best crop in years and such beautiful leaves!

In a bay area paper of May 1st, there was a mention of a group of peninsula matrons who were in arms. One of the group has omitted Emily Post from her reading list. In sending dinner invitations she asked her guests to bring their own drinks. The astonished guests complied with her wishes, and brought some rare stuff, which was switched for the rank tasting cognac in the hostess'es cupboard, Hmmmm.

Some years ago mention was made that when Dowager Queen Mary of England goes dining she sends two bottles of rare wine to her hostess. If any is left over, she takes it home, which doesn't prove the point, after all in the latter instance it was hers to begin with.

A Hollywood hostess, giving instructions to a new maid just before a party, cautioned:

"Now remember, Marie, when you are serving my guests, don't wear any jewelry."

"I haven't anything valuable, madam," answered the maid, "but thanks for the warning just the same."

DRUM & BUGLE CORPS NEWS

Just one year ago, May 1, 1948, the Brisbane Scout and Cub Drum and Bugle Corps was in its first parade—The Daly City May Day Parade.

We said, that day, before we left Brisbane —"If we win a prize we will form at the Brisbane Recreation Center, on our way home, and march up Visitacion Avenue to let the home folks know how we came out." Daly City treated us well that day and on our way home, we marched up Visitacion Avenue with the award for 2nd prize.

Just one year later, May 1, 1949, we again went to the Daly City May Day Parade — a much larger and more competitive parade than 1948 (this was their 2nd annual May Day Parade) and we sincerely thank Daly City for the hospitality extended to us. We especially commend them for getting their parade started on time. We are proud to be considered a part of their annual festivities and our boys and giirls tried to help them put over their celebration to the people looking on.

We have just been notified that we were awarded a First Prize Trophy and, for those desiring to see same, you will find it added to our collection in Waldy King's Mens Shop window.

The following participants for the job so well done: George Babkirk, Paul Bollinger, Bobby Brown, Darrell Chapman, Ronald Greweli, Dickie Hosking, Gene Johnson, Donald Parrish. Robert Saunders, Danny Smith, George Tann and Waldo Woodard, Bugle Players; Donald Delbon, Mayo Hogue, Jr., Roger Saunders, Bill Smith, Anthony Souza, Carrol Soward and Bobby Williams, Snare Drummers. Richard Soward, and George Brady, Bass Drummers; Donna Williams, Lyre Bells; Vennita Chapman, Martha Penrod and Joyce Webster, Majorettes and "Guess Who," the Drum Major. (Some of our regular members couldn't participate due to the fact that they had to play in the Daly City Band) and a good band it is.

Well done boys and girls—your leaders took you there but you did the work and you did it very well indeed.

Transportation was smilingly and voluntarily furnished by some of our very best sponsors, as follows: Ray Brown, Mr. Grewell, May Hogue, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Souza, Don Williams and Mrs. Earle Woodard.

Thank You, transporters, we don't know what the Drum and Bugle Corps would do without you. We do know that the job you are doing costs money and takes a lot of your valuable time. Keep up the good work. Your assisance is very much appreciated by the leaders, boys and girls alike. We also know, even if no one else does, that, without you, we would just have to advertise Brisbane in Bisbane and no place else because without the needed and expensive transpotation, we sure wouldn't get out of town anyime.

NO FOOLING BRISBANE--- Why are so many people holding back support and assistance to your Drum and Bugle Corps?? We are not sponsored by any organization. It is too much of a job for any one organization in Brisbane to handle. Every organization and every man and woman in town should be helping this fine group of boys and girls in every way possible. The load should not be on a few civic minded persons as it is at the present time.

This Drum and Bugle Corps placed the name of BRISBANE, CALIFORNIA before several thousand people last year that never had heard of it before. The impression on these people's minds was not that of gangsters, gamblers etc. It was the best impression that can be left with anyone —that of youths working, learning and playing in fine clean enviroment and activity.

Already, in 1949, these boys and girls have participated in two competitive parades and they have brought you home two FIRST PRIZE AWARDS. Take a close look at the trophies in King's window, note the different places these are from and imagine, if you were not there, for yourself how many different people seen them in action. Even if they hadn't brought back these prizes, when these boys and girls show up in a parade, the people watching from the sidelines soon learn that they are from and represent Brisbane, California and they don't soon forget it.

We have in hand now, due to our performance at the Cow Palace in the Scout-O-Rama, and invitation, frm the San Francisco City College, to lead their First Annual Mardi Gras Parade, Friday, May 27th, at 7:30 P. M. This parade will be televised and then broadcast on Saturday, May 28th. We are trying to arrange to be there but a lot of work and planning will be necessary before the job can be accomplisshed.

We also have an invitation to the California Rodeo Parade at Salinas, Saturday, June 18, 1949. This is one parade that we should all see that our unit gets and is allowed a chance to compete in.

These are both important affairs and it will take a little help from Brisbane proper if we are to be allowed to take part.

It will cost from $100 to $125 to take our unit to the Salinas affair. IS IT WORTH IT?

By that time we hope to have our Big Bass Drum on wheels, converted into a Float announcing in no uncertain words, "HERE COMES BRISBANE, CALIF." in front of our unit in each parade is already arranged for so that is not going to be an additional expense. However, for the Salinas parade we will need a bus for transportation and, since we will be gone about 16 or 18 hours, we will have to furnish at least one complete meal for each participant. The meal item alane will cost about $60.00. IS IT WORTH IT BRISBANE???

How much would Brisbane pay for this kind of advertising if a professional advertising agency was hired to give Brisbane a clean and wholesome build up throughout of the State? We would say sev eral times the initial cost of equipment, uniforms, transportation and operating expense of this one Drum and Bugle Corps. If everyone would chip in a little this outfit will show you and everyone else in this part of the county the best Junior Drum and Bugle Corps in the State.

We now have tickets on sale in most of the stores in Brisbane and by Geo. Brady, Dick Hosking Ray Brown, Mayo Hogue, Sr. and everal other individuals for our Benefit Raffle for a valuable prize that will be given away, May 30. The ticket sell for 25c each or 3 for 50 cents. The prize will have a value of at least $65.00. This is everyone's chance to help a lot and win a lot and also help put Brisbane on the map.

BOY SCOUTS of AMERICA

San Francisco Area Council
105 Montgomery St.
San Francisco 4, Calif.

Dear Fred Schmidt, Sr., Fred Schmidt, Jr., Bob Boomer and all the Gang of Flight 134:

As you well know the 1949 Scout-O-Rama was a huge success, and all because you guys and others like you made it so. We on the Council Staff are extremely proud of you for putting on such a grand show and we compliment you on it. I personally want to congratulate you on such a show well done.

I have heard several people make the statement that the Model Airplane Show was the highlight of the whole thing. While I regret very much the crack-ups and the expense involved in repairing or replacing them, nevertheless that added thrills and excitement and comment that could have never come without the smah-ups, so perhaps there is that much compensation out of it anyway. Our plane event was spectacular and drew hearty applause and interest from over 20,000 people assembled at the Cow Palace.

Thanks again, and congratulations. You really made me proud of you,

Very ssincerely yours,
Elden J. Peterson
District Executive.

Neck Pains

Brown was a very light sleeper. One night he was obliged to stop at a small hotel and, after much trouble, finally succeeded in getting to sleep. Two hours later came a loud knocking on his door.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"Package downstairs for you, sir," came a boy's voice.

"Well, let it stay there. It can wait until morning, I suppose?"

The boy shuffled down the corridor and after a long time Brown fell asleep again. Then came another knocking on the door.

"Well, what's up now?" Brown demanded.

"That package—it isn't for you!"

MOUNTAIN PLAY

A Centennial note of interest colors the thirty-second annual Mountain Play "Rough an' Ready," to be presented May 22 at 2 p. m. in Marin County's Mount Tamalpais State Park amphitheatre.

The production takes its title from a small mining town in Nevada, County, California, celebrated during the Gold Rush days for its freedom of action — for in April 1850, it seceded from federal and state governments.

Named for 'Rough 'an Ready' President Zachary Taylor and founded by Wisconsin pioneers, the townspeople soon took a violent dislike to an influx of New Englanders finally culminating in a declaration of independence in order to effectively deal with the newcomers. A federal tax on miners, however, has been offered as a more logical reason for their decision to take government into their own hands. Titled "The Great Republic of Rough-and-Ready," it came to a short end by forgetting to notify the President of the United States of the parting of the ways and wanting to use the Stars-and-Stripes to celebrate the 4th of July, 1850.

The production is under the direction of its author, California's own Dan Totheroh, and will be the opening event of Marin County's salute to the State Centennial.

MILLBRAE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLAYS HOST

Starting Thursday, May 12 and conveniing for three thrilled packed days the Millbrae Chamber of Commerce played host to bay region residents at one of the most spectacular historical pageants and shows ever presented in this area.

The colorful extravaganza which its sponsors have called "The 49er Cavalcade" was highlighted by a mammoth stage presentation in a specially constructed outdoor amphitheatre with a cast of over 500 players who enacted dramatic moments in California's early history.

The theatre which is located in the north section of Millbrae a block west of El Camino, seats according to chamber president Geoffrey Baldwin, over 3000 spectators. At one period of the show a mighty procession of horsemen, covered wagons and stage coaches thundered across the stage. The exciting tableau followed by a vast troupe of colorfully garbed Spaniards, gold-rush pioneers, Indians, padres and other well known figures from California's turbulent past.

The entire production was under the direction of Carl Harvey, eminent Hollywood producer who was flown here from the cinema capital several weeks ago.

The Millbrae 3-day extravaganza was one of the most breath-taking historical programs ever directed.

As an added attraction for youngsters of all ages, the Cavalcade committee presented Jo-Jo the clown and Bette Ann each afternoon during the run of the show. The famous funnyman conducted at least a half dozen contests for the kiddies. Prizes were awarded to winners of his talent quest and games.

Another high spot of three day festival was a carnival show located in the Broadway Millbrae area which featured booths dispensing hams, bacon and grocery items. There was also a half dozen thrilling mechanical rides for adults as well as youngsters.
